Why do we celebrate Bonfire Night?	How has Chester Zoo changed over the years?	How did the Great Fire of London change our Capital City?
I know... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bonfire Night is celebrated to commemorate the anniversary of Guy Fawkes' Gunpowder Plot. Guy (Guido) Fawkes planned to assassinate the King and the Members of Parliament. Guy Fawkes planned to overthrow the Protestant rulers and replace them with English Catholics. Bonfire Night is now celebrated to commemorate the prevention of the plot. 	I know... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Chester zoo was founded by George Mottershead. In 1931, George bought Oakfield House in Cheshire with 9 acres of land. Initially, there were animals in the back garden (not in cages) and the family ran the zoo. Chester zoo has had to overcome many challenges, including World War 2, a fire and Covid 19. Chester zoo how now grown enormously and there are over 1000 members of staff. It now cares for over 20000 animals and is the most visited wildlife attraction in Britain (outside of London). 	I know... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Great Fire of London of 1666 happened in the Stuart period. It started in a bakery in Pudding Lane, caused by a spark from an oven and lasted for 5 days. The fire spread quickly because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -houses were made of wood and built close together. -it was very hot. There was no rain. -there was no trained fire brigade. Many houses were burned, and we think 6 people died. Houses were rebuilt further apart from each other. More were built from brick and stone and fire brigades were set up to stop this from happening again. Samuel Pepys and John Evelyn were eyewitnesses whose diaries tell us about the fire.
